CIRCULAR

(WRITTEN QUALIFYING EXAMINATION)

In accordance with the Academic Information and Regulations governing the post graduate studies of the University, the Dean of the Post Graduate Studies will conduct the written qualifying examination of all the departments for eligible M.Sc. and Ph.D. students in the respective PG Centers on 16th February, 2023. Hence, it is informed to all the Deans of PG Centers to issue a necessary circular for the information of the students to get them prepared for the written qualifying examination. The question papers for the written qualifying examination of all the departments will be provided by the Dean PGS Office and examination will be conducted on the above said scheduled date with the help of the constituent college Dean, HOD's, and invigilators. The written qualifying examination for M.Sc. and Ph. D. students will consist of maximum 100 marks [Part-I (Objective: 50 marks) & Part-II (Subjective: 50 marks)] and the duration will be for 45 minutes for Part-I (Objective) paper & 2.15 hours for Part-II (Subjective) paper. For old batch students (admitted prior to the academic year 2022-23) Part-II (Objective) written qualifying examination will be conducted first and then the Part-I (Subjective) written qualifying examination will be conducted.
